

THE FIJI JOURNAL OF PUBLIC HEALTH (FJPH)

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

The FJPH is a Fiji based journal published for public health practitioners, public health researchers, clinicians and all allied health practitioners. Our goal is to provide evidence based information and analysis they need to enable them to make the right choices and decisions concerning their health and health services provided to ensure better health for all.

We seek to publish articles on public health issues in Fiji ranging from child health, maternal health, neglected tropical diseases, non-communicable diseases, wellness initiatives, environment, climate change, biomedical research, social-economic research, health determinants, and health systems research, health policies, reforms, information, human resources etc. Submissions on other topics are also welcome as long as they relate to public health issues.

We are now accepting submissions for our volume 4, issue 2 edition on the Theme: Wellness – Nutrition in Fiji. Submissions are due May 15th 2015.

We would accept papers/articles directly or indirectly related to the theme which may be in the form of Original Research, Abstracts, Opinion pieces, Field Notes, Perspectives; Policy pieces (Policy papers/Policy Briefs).

Please refer to the Instructions to Authors for more information on Submission requirements.

For any further questions regarding submissions, email the Editorial team on fjph12@gmail.com or mere.delai@govnet.gov.fj.
